

Contract for purchasing a used caravan

Important information about the agreement

The contract form may be completed electronically or printed and filled in on paper. The Consumer Council recommends that the contract is completed electronically by the parties jointly. Consumer Council urges both parties to read through the entire agreement before the agreement is signed. The Consumer Council does not take responsibility for any errors when filling out the contract.

The contract must be printed in at least two copies and signed by both parties. We also recommend to sign each page initialed.

The Consumer Council's contract forms are updated continuously. Last update appears on the contract. Policy and practice in the area can be changed, and there may be periods when the content of the contracts and associated guidelines have not been updated. The Consumer Council disclaims all potential liability for errors, omissions or incomplete updates. Please contact the Consumer Council on telephone No 23 400 500 if you have questions about the contract form.

Reservations

Is the caravan sold "as is":

Yes No

When a reservation is made that the caravan is sold "as is", it means that the buyer will take on much of the risk of the caravan having possible hidden defects. If the buyer discovers shortcomings of the agreement it is normally not a breach of contract unless the seller has given incorrect or incomplete information or if the caravan is of considerably worse condition than the buyer had reason to expect from the purchase amount and other factors.

Check list

Check this when you buy a caravan::

1. Check the caravan for moisture and damage due to mould with the right measuring equipment.
2. Check Brønnøysundregistrene for liens.
3. Check the total weight and if you can pull the caravan with your car on Statens vegvesen
(the Norwegian Public Roads Administrations) calculator.
4. Check how heavy a caravan your tow bar can pull.
5. Check the location rental terms thoroughly.
